

CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH

WEAR BLUE AND BRING TWO

SUGGESTIONS FOR A SUCCESSFUL WEEK

- Send a letter from the CEO urging employee participation.
- Greet your employees in the morning with donuts and blue ribbons.
- Post posters around the coffee pot, water cooler, break room, main entrance and exit at the beginning of April to encourage participation and awareness.
- Plan an ice cream break and sign-up employees during the afternoon slump.
- Select employee teams and have a contest with prizes for the team with the most participants.
- Invite a Sunflower House staff member & “Happy Bear” to visit during April to teach employees about preventing child abuse and Sunflower House.
- Give small thank you gifts to participants.
- Set up an informational and educational child abuse prevention table in the lobby.
- Have a “Wear Blue” party and have employees bring their favorite “blue food” to share.
- Make arrangements for participants to take a “If These Walls Could Talk” tour of Sunflower House.
